

The Story that Awes the Angels

>>Fill in the blanks with true words that rhyme with the last word of the line before. The Bible verses will give you a hint!<<

I have a story you'll like to hear—it has the angels awed.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was _____ . (John 1:1)

He made a world so beautiful for Adam and his wife

In fact, all things were made by Him, for in the Word is _____ . (John 1:4)

But sadly, Adam and his wife were into sin enticed

So God came to us a man—His name is Jesus _____ . (John 1:17)

Though by that time, this world was not the beauty it had been,

Jesus came, the “Lamb of God”, to take away our _____ . (John 1:29)

Though He was born of Mary, He truly was God's Son.

And Mary magnified the Lord and said, “To me, great things He's _____ !” (Luke 1:46-49)

Jesus is the King of Kings, but can it be so odd?

There was no room inside the inn to house the Son of _____ ! (Luke 2:7)

So when our God came to this earth as practic'ly a stranger

The precious One who made our world was laid soft in a _____ . (Luke 2:7)

But there were some who recognized that God had come to them:

Among them, Mary, Joseph, and the shepherds and wise _____ . (Matthew 2:1,2)

Yes, Jesus was a special babe, much more than just a boy

So like the wise men long ago, let's, too, have great, great _____ !
(Matthew 2:10)

Jesus grew to be a man; So we could live, He died;

And soon He'll come to take us home—forever by His _____ ! (John 14:3)